SUGGESTION SYSTEM PAYS OUT $1787 IN TIME FOR CHRISTMAS

$884.00 is the total award presented to Joseph Ciarlo of the Cosmetic Manufacturing Division.

He had suggested a new method of making rolls and plates for the Harper buffing machines which cut maintenance on the machines down to a minimum. Here he and Foreman Frank Noack check reports on results.

$478.00 went to Edmund Boisvert of the Manufacturing Eyelet Dept. as partial payment for a suggestion.

Both downtime and solution waste were greatly decreased with the adoption of his suggested method of mixing lubricating solutions. Factory Supt. Norman Schaffer presented award; Foreman Fred Kirschbaum looks on.

$120.00 was awarded to Anthony Brunetti, now of Combustion Control, Waterbury plant, as partial payment.

While in New Milford, he had suggested a new method of writing mill procedure sheets which cut down greatly on time used for this purpose. Suggestion System Administrator William Armour made the presentation.

Ideas Earn $1787 for Suggestors

An idea is worth money only if it is passed on through proper channels where it can be studied, and put into use if found practicable and adaptable. The idea may be a good one, but finding out if it will actually work can only be accomplished by turning it in. Only through thorough investigation and tryout can its use be definitely established.

Many of the ideas submitted during the contest were found of practical use, with some of the suggestors receiving cash payments at this time; some were found not to be practical for reasons which are explained to the suggestors in their letters of appreciation; others are still being studied or are in the experimental stage. These suggestors will be notified of results as soon as known.

H.B. Introduces Cordless Knife

Hamilton Beach recently introduced the first convertible electric knife, which operates with or without a cord. Combining the advantages of a cordless knife with the conventional "plug in" knife, the Convertible features the famed Hamilton Beach "hole-in-the-handle".

A handsome storage case and recharger are designed as one unit for this new model. The knife recharges automatically when the case is plugged into an A-C outlet.

When operated as a cordless knife, the Convertible provides full carving power. Used in this way, it is powered to handle all normal carving requirements on four rechargeable nickel cadmium batteries — enough to carve an entire roast or turkey.

In addition to this new Convertible, and the regular custom model which was so successful last season, Hamilton Beach also offers a deluxe model and a lower priced utility model.

Season's Greetings

On behalf of the Company, I wish each of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

May you and your families be guided and sustained by the true spirit of Christmas, during the holiday season and the new year that follows.

Sincerely,

Malcolm Balduge
President

On behalf of Scovill Local 1604, UAW, I wish to extend a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all Scovill employees and their families.

Sincerely,

Michael Easton

Plant Holiday Schedules

Christmas Shutdown

The Waterbury Divisions and Services will close for Christmas at the end of the work day on Thursday, December 23, and will reopen with the start of the first shift on Monday, December 27, 1965.

New Year's Shutdown

The Waterbury Divisions and Services will close for New Year's at the end of the work day on Thursday, December 30, 1965, and will reopen with the start of the first shift on Monday, January 3, 1966.

Departmental schedules for each of these Thursdays will be posted individually. Any exceptions to the above schedules will be by individual notification or by posted notice.

Christmas and New Year's are holidays for which employees who qualify are paid when they do not work. Because these holidays fall on Saturday this year, the plant will be closed on Friday in celebration.

To all employees:—

A happy holiday season, with best wishes for a successful and profitable New Year.

Driving Accidents

Warning—Drugged Driving

Wintertime brings with it not only the seasonal driving hazards of sleet and snow, but also increased incidence of colds and flu. The Food and Drug Administration warns that many medications used to combat these ailments also have side effects that impair driving abilities.

Drivers should be wary of using the following before or during driving as they are likely to have ill effects:

Pain Relievers and Sedatives—Ill effects may include sleepiness, impaired vision and reaction time, and interference with concentration. Some pills may give a dangerously excessive feeling of well being.

Anti-Histamines—Side effects are unpredictable but may include inattention, sudden drowsiness, giddiness and disorientation.

Motion-Sickness Drugs—These can be dangerous because they may slow up a driver's reaction time.

Nerve Stimulants—Although these may give some temporary alertness and efficiency their effect soon wears off and the user becomes extremely tired and sleepy. Continued use may cause a trance.

All-Purpose Drugs—May produce side-effects like nausea, temporary deafness and loss of balance, which may come on quickly.

Those who must drive while under medication should do so only after they have been assured by their physician that their medication will not impair driving abilities.

A point to remember:—A driver with a few drinks may feel ten feet tall, but he'll fit into a 6-foot box.

Square Dancing

The third and final square dancing session of the year will be held on Thursday, December 9th, at SERA at 8:00 p.m. Frank Minnehan is the caller.

Three of these sessions have been conducted on a trial basis and, if sufficient interest is shown, the sessions will start up again on Thursday, January 13, 1966 on a weekly basis. So, if you cannot attend the December 9th session, and still want the dances to be held, be sure to call the Employee Activities Office and let them know you want them to be continued.

"Holiday Special" Blood Day, Dec. 14

Making up your Christmas gift list? Why not start it off with a reminder to stop in at the SERA Building on Tuesday, December 14th, between 1:00 and 5:00 p.m. to leave the most precious gift you can give — one pint of blood.

The Blood Mobile Unit will be set up during those hours, with trained nurses, doctors, clerical workers and the wonderful ladies of the Red Cross Canteen who provide such delicious refreshments for you. And you'll see so many of your friends there too.

Applications should be available in all departments but, if you have not been contacted by a department representative (and you're between the ages of 18 and 60) a call to the Employee Activities Office, Ext. 834, will get your name on the list of volunteers.

This holiday season is a happy one and it will be for most of us but, accidents, illness and the need for heart surgery do not take time off for holidays and it might even be that we ourselves or a loved one will be in need of blood before the holidays are over. Let's help to make sure that we will not regret the lack of blood in our hospitals for any emergency.

We gave thanks for all our blessings on Thanksgiving Day through prayer — let's really mean it and show our thanks by sharing our blessings with those less fortunate — just one pint of blood could possibly mean the life and good health of another human being.

See you at the SERA on December 14th, between 1:00 and 5:00 p.m.!

AN IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFT. Hamilton Beach has prepared a new cook book to show that blender cooking is the modern way to prepare delicious meals. Containing hundreds of recipes, the 208-page hard-cover book is being offered free for a limited time with the versatile 7-speed blender.

Christmas Mailing Suggestions

MAIL EARLY. Distant out-of-town letters and packages (domestic) should be in the mail before December 10th. Mail for nearby points will arrive in time if mailed before December 15th.

For best service, use 1st class postage — the special 5¢ Christmas stamp is recommended. First class assures faster handling, permits greetings to be sealed and a personal message may be included. Also, your card will be forwarded if addressee has moved and returned to you if undeliverable.

Mail is handled faster in the post office if out-of-town is separated from local mail and all mail is faced with addresses one way and tied into bundles. Out-of-town and local labels are available at the post office.

Large bundles of greetings can be sent on their way faster if deposited directly in the main post office or one of the branches or stations operated by regular postal employees.

All addresses—both those of the addressee and the sender—should be legible; avoid abbreviations.

Do not mail money in Christmas gifts or greetings; use registered mail.

Very important—use your ZIP Code in return addresses and in all destination addresses, when known. This applies to packages as well as cards.

Kids' Christmas Party

The annual Christmas Party for children and grandchildren of Scovill employees will be held on Saturday and Sunday, December 18 and 19th, at SERA from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Tickets are available now at the Employee Activities Office and are limited to children and grandchildren (between the ages of 2 and 10) of Scovill employees. This restriction has to be placed because of the space limitations and fire regulations.

Tickets are being issued on a first-come, first-served basis and employees' cooperation is asked in obtaining tickets only for children who qualify.

Retired Folks' Club

The annual Christmas party for retired employees of the Waterbury and Oakville divisions will be held at SERA on Thursday, December 16th, starting at 1:30 p.m. The change in date from Tuesday to Thursday is being made as the Christmas Special Blood Donor Day is set for the second Tuesday of the month.

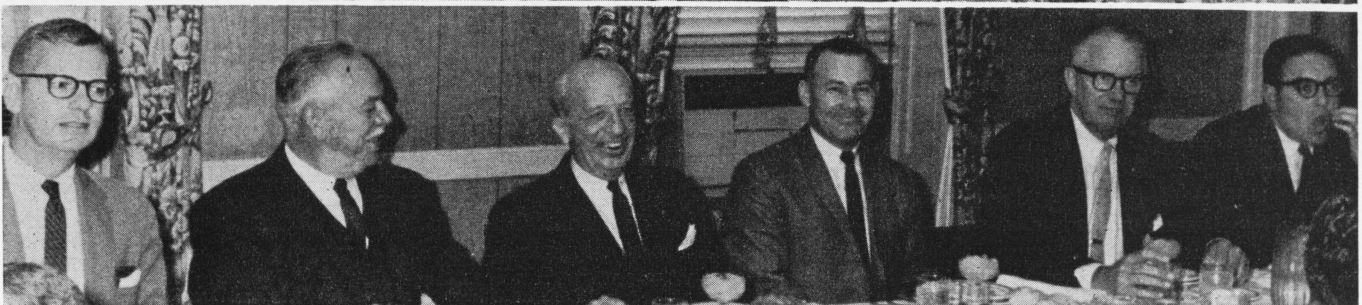

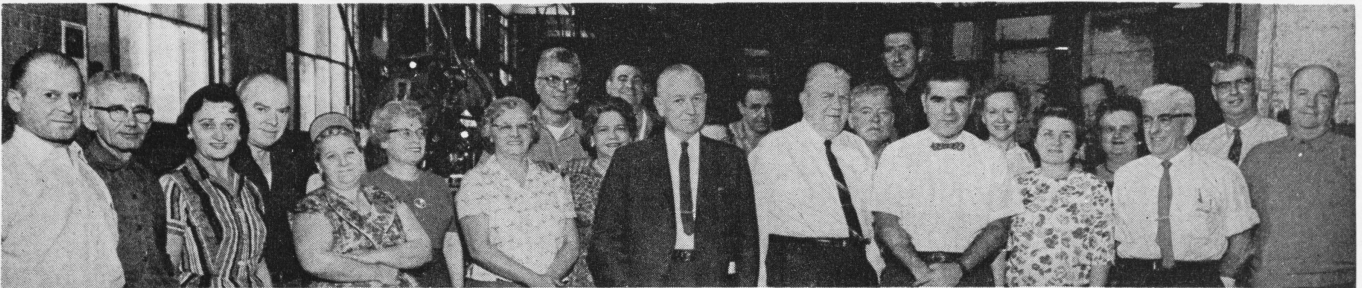

Entertainment, group singing, refreshments and a gift for each make up the program for the day.

Retirees are invited to bring along a guest but, because of the number of persons allowed in the hall by safety regulations, each is asked to keep the number of invited guests to one.

SCOVILL CLOSURES ON EXHIBIT. The complete line of Conmar Zippers was included in our Closure Div.'s exhibition at the National Outerwear and Sportswear Association show held in the New York Trade Show Building recently.

Two fashion themes were used to project the adaptation of Scovill closures "For the Big, Small, Long, Tall, Short Look of Fashion". They are "The Big Snap Look" and "The Zip and Dash Look."

FIVE RETIREES 'TOTAL 160 YEARS' OF SCOVILL SERVICE

Four recent Waterbury Division employees who retired from active service were partied and gifted by their fellow employees. Top to bottom above, they include: Amelia Ferreira, 15 years; Etta King over 21 years; Leo Smith, 39 years; Theresa Tropasso, 39 years.

Bottom picture:—DeForest H. Miller, of our New York Office, was partied in New York when he retired after completing 47 years of service for Scovill. On hand were: Reed Bertollette, Closure Div. Marketing Manager; J. W. Stassen, retired; Mr. Miller; R. S. Bradshaw, New York; H. D. Ward, N. Y. District Sales Manager; Closure Div. General Manager R. W. Hall.

Rod & Gun Club

By Walter Dziura

The annual autumn banquet was well attended by members and guests who enjoyed a delicious rib roast dinner. Milt Burrall did his usual fine job as toastmaster. Short after-dinner talks and reports were given by invited guests Judge Reeves, George Goss, Fred Wilson and the Club officers. Movies were also shown.

Most significant was a report on rifle range progress given by George Goss. He stated many hundreds of patterns had been moved, and work was continuing to sift through and move others; also that some material for the range had arrived.

Prizes for the Reeves' Fishing Competitions were given to those deserving anglers who won them. It is surprising that more members do not enter these contests since prizes are awarded on a point system, and a single point won means a prize. To illustrate: Lee Graham won $19 on points and $5 for being Champ. Not bad!

Shoulder patches for members were discussed at the regular meeting on Nov. 16th. If enough interest is shown in them, and they can be purchased for a reasonable price, we may be sporting patches. Give your opinions to your committeemen and club officers.

Members who won prizes but have not received them as yet are asked to contact Ruth Peterson in the Employee Activities Office. Arrangements will be made to get it to you.

Goods news for our trout fishermen—it was voted to stock more trout in the reservoir in the spring. It seems the carry-over is better than expected, expert opinions to the contrary.

All dinner dancing regulars and other fun seekers should jot down February 12th on their social calendars—for our annual dinner dance.

To avoid the rush of Christmas week, the December regular meeting will be held on the second Tuesday, the 14th, rather than the 21st.

New Year's Eve Party

The twenty-first annual New Year's Eve party will start with a roast beef dinner to be served at 8:00 p.m. at SERA. Music for dancing will be provided from 9 p.m. until 2:00 a.m.

Tickets are now available at the Employee Activities Office. They are limited to 150 couples and are being issued on a first-come, first-served basis.

— Your Social Security —

Scovill employees will start paying higher social security tax contributions on more of their pay beginning in January, 1966.

The social security amendments of 1965, voted by Congress in July, increased the tax contribution rate to 4.2 percent of the first $6,600 of a worker's earnings, or payments up to a maximum of $277.20 annually. Workers earning less than $6,600 will pay proportionately less.

Your contribution, together with matching amounts paid by the Company, are credited to the social security trust funds, which may be used only for social security purposes.

The tax contribution rate of 4.2 percent is slightly higher than the 4.125 percent rate already scheduled to take effect in January before the recent amendments were passed. The 4.125 percent rate would have applied to the first $4,800 of your 1966 earnings. In 1965, 3.625 percent of the first $4,800 of your pay for the year was deducted for social security, or up to a maximum of $174 annually.

The social security deductions, and matching payments by employers, finance monthly retirement and disability benefits to workers and their families and to survivors when the worker dies. In addition to increasing these benefits and broadening their coverage, the new amendments provide hospital insurance for all persons at age 65 under the new "Medicare" program.

You will actually pay two social security contributions. The biggest deduction of 3.85 percent in 1966 will be for the established social security program of retirement, survivors, and disability insurance. The second deduction, much smaller, will go toward hospital insurance under "Medicare" and will amount to 0.35 percent in 1966. The rates are scheduled to increase in succeeding years.

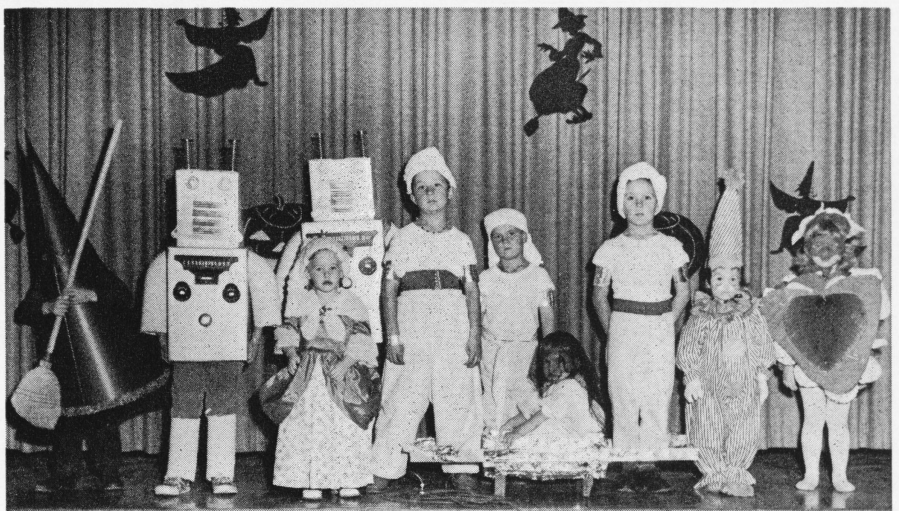

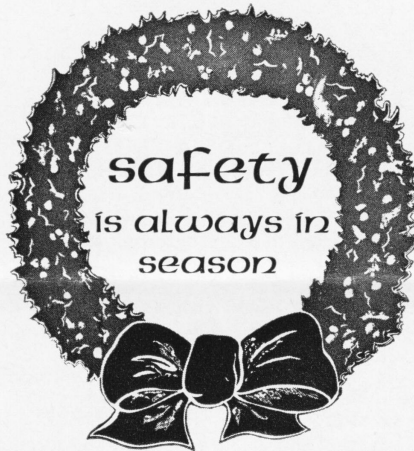

In addition to hospital insurance protection, the 1965 social security amendments also set up a supplementary medical insurance program under "Medicare". This plan will help pay other medical expenses, including doctors' bills. The medical insurance plan will be financed out of $6 a month premiums, shared half-and-half by the older people who sign up and the Federal Government.

The program of health insurance for the aged was just one of the changes made in social security in 1965. Among other important changes were:

- increased cash benefits,
- payment of child's benefits until age 22 if he is full-time student,
- benefits to many severely disabled people who were not eligible before,
- providing for beneficiaries to earn more than under the old law and still receive some benefits,
- allowing widows to choose benefits in a reduced amount as early as 60,
- paying special benefits to certain persons over 72 who were not eligible under the old law.

If you have any question about social security, you are invited to get in touch with your nearest social security district office. The Waterbury office is located at 236 Grand St.

HALLOWE'EN AT SERA. Witches, spacemen, clowns, lovely ladies — all were on hand to celebrate the event. Winners of prizes for original costumes included the Durante children: princess Cheryl borne on her silver chariot by brothers Gary, Glen and Alfred; witch Robert Verner; spacemen Steven and James Giuffre. Prettiest costume awards went to Ann Marie Donovan and Cheryl Fabiani. Funniest costume prize was won by Elizabeth Parisino, clown.
